THE COUNTRAFEIT BURINESS.—The Topek Record tells of how a citizen of that place, named Brewer, recently replied to a circula rived from New York, by sending $10, for which be was to receive $1,000 in counterfeit sey on the payment of $90, C.O. D. In doe time a package came by express, directed to bis; and with it a charge for $90, for which With Stock & Wagon Yard attached be gave a check. On opening the box, how-ever, he discovered nothing but shavi go and old iron, at sight of which the tower of speculation which to had been framing for many anxions days, fell in dust to the ground. He, bowever, sent immediately to the bank to stop his check, and in consequence the Express Company brought suit against him for the , and a very pretty law question is the result. Brown alleges that the $10 and the were paid by him not for counterfeit monry, but as a trap wherewith to catch rogues. on sense people, bowever, judging of the metive by what they see around, believe that wer was such an ass as to think he could get hold of some counterfeit money, and would have been glad to do so, but instead of that h got taken in and done for by smarter rogues

We have since learned that Brewer has gain od his suit. The Justice has properly decided that a swindler cannot take a man's money and keep it, even though the man was intent upon riduals bereabouts done out of their money by the same sort of swindle, and never recovered is. Are not those men aware that detective are constantly on the watch of those professe Scalers in counterfeit money at the East; and that whenever they ship a box by express, word is sent on ahead, notifying other detectives that a cumpicious box has been shipped to the person addressed; and that all the movements of such ons are watched? If counter'eit money hould be sent, the person would be nabbed up. the very first bill be undertook to pass.

IF A subscriber writes us, that he eres we are ticketed down Salt River, while so many are bound up that famous stream; and as he thinks a voyage down it must be fully as expensive as one up stream, he encloses money on his account. We wish a good many more Justice of the Peace, and Notary Public, would take a thought on this matter, and sen us a remittance.

It is not often that saloons are compelled to close, on account of a rush of business. But such was the case in our town, one night last week. The railroad hands were paid off, that day, and, made it so lively at the saloons, that the propietors found it advisable to close up early in the evening.

Wenderful and amusing Therefore every the day losses the present year, and we are deeply in debt. These must be paid at that time, no getting ground it. They must be paid at that time, no getting ground it. They must be paid, and excuses will not do, as we of the country, and are now prepared to fill orders. A supply will be kept up all season. The present season, by the junior members of the firm, and our old customers will not do, as we must have the money from all, in order to grow ourselves.
